aw/or

Underline the words that have the sound 'aw'. Then read the passage.

Jack sits back down on his blue rug to wait.

Jack yawns. He must get back soon.

It is getting dark now.

He gets up, gets his torch from his rucksack and looks for Roy again.

Then Jack spies him in the torch's beam.

Oh no! He is stuck. He tugs him out of the thorns.

"Come on Roy we must go now," he says.

But Roy is limping. Jack looks at his paw and sees that he has a thorn stuck in it.

He tugs it out but Roy cannot run.

Jack must lift him up. Roy has dirt on him.

Jack gets a shawl from the car and rubs Roy clean.

He cleans his paw with some water.

He helps Roy into the car and off they go.

Draw a picture of Jack looking at Roy's paw with a thorn in it.
