oo/ee Missing Sounds Game

Aim: To help children establish in their minds which words contain the sound 'oo' and which 'ee', This will be helpful later on when they have to remember for example which have 'ea' / 'ee', or 'u-e' / 'oo'.

Through this multisensory game, children will become more confident when reading and spelling words containing the sounds 'oo' and 'ee'.

How to make:

Print all game pages onto card (or paper).

Cut up the picture cards. Cut up the oo/ee/star cards.

How to play:

Give each player three picture cards, which s/he should place face up in front of him/her. The remaining picture cards should be stacked face up on the table. To begin with, choose three words that are meaningful to your pupil. This will help to give the child confidence as some words may be new to him/her.

Scatter the oo/ee/star cards over the table face down (or you could put them in a feely bag if you have one).

Players take it in turn to choose an oo/ee/star card. If the player takes an oo/ee card the player should look to see if s/he can complete one of his/her three words to match a picture. If not, the oo/ee card should be returned to the pool on the table. If it does, then the completed card should be set aside and another taken from the stack.

Should a star card be taken, the player can have another turn.

Play continues until all the picture cards have been completed. The winner has the most completed cards.
